BUCKY OF BELGRAVIA

Belgrave Books, United States, 2014. Paperback. Book Condition: New. 203 x 133 mm. Language: English . Brand New Book  Print on Demand .In Alden Douglas hilarious and heartfelt comic novel, two unlikely partners-one American, one Russian-pool their talents to build and operate London s most exclusive bordello. Wrapped within this outer story is an unforgettable romantic adventure. Confident, brilliant, but dangerously naive, Bucky Newman boards the red-eye to London, eager to take on his first international assignment and fulfill his promises to his family back in Buffalo. A supremely talented IT consultant, his skills have made him a man in global demand. Bucky assumes his live-in girlfriend Dayna will soon follow him across the pond, and that romance will flourish along with career success. But a drunken argument with a blowhard client quickly costs him both his job and his girl, and sends his life in a wildly different direction. In a pub in seedy Tottenham he encounters Yuri Dolgorukov, the construction manager for a wealthy and ambitious oligarch. Yuri throws Bucky a much-needed lifeline-a chance to build and manage a private gentlemen s club in Belgrave Square. The only catch: under its glittering exterior, the club will be a cathouse. So begins the riotous tale of International Fulfillment, and the eccentric characters who parade through this opulent house of ill repute, for well-heeled men of high repute. More than just a risqué yarn, Bucky of Belgravia is the story of a young man s search for lasting love, and a life that amounts to something greater than being a one instead of a zero. Confronted and challenged by Sangita Sharma-a courageous, resolute charity worker-Bucky is forced to acknowledge his own dire moral dilemma. In response, he wages a furious cyber war against Britain s worst sex-sellers and slavers,...
