It looks down upon the Konkan. The ancients of this place, in their shirts of mail, could look down and see all that was going on in the plains below. The Bor Ghat was the same then as it is now, not only in physical contour and conformation, but absolutely the only pass through which all the commerce of the Bombay Harbour passed to the Dekhan. The railway makes no difference in this respect; commerce is friendly, but war is unfriendly, so sometimes an enemy came, and Eajmachi kept an outlook on him. Kotligarh stood guard below, but Rajmachi was the great bulls-eye lantern held in the face of friend or foe, and flashed upon every man who came from those lower Konkan regions. Whos there was the watchword of Eajmachi. God keep the country, when its vigilance committee is perched...
