The discharge of this responsibility will either smooth or ruffle your dying pillow; it will accompany you through the dark valley, and bear witness for or against you before the judgment sent. The weight of this responsibility consists in the influence your action will exert in weakening or strengthening the fidelity and courage of the American Church. This influence will spring solely from the weight of your personal characters, and the high position you occupy in the confidence of the religious community. Your functions as a committee are not those of a jury, for there is no issue of fact to be tried. The acts of the Executive Committee which have given offence, and which have led to your appointment, far from being denied, are admitted and justified. Nor are your functions those of a court, invested with authority to decide and settle controverted rights. Whatever may be your report, it cannot control, however it may influence, the future action of the Society or the opinion of the public. As a Committee of Inquiry, your province is to collect the arguments urged for and against the action of the Executive Committee, and to express your opinion of their relative weight. Hence each party has an undoubted right to present to you their own view of the case, and thus to aid you in acquiring a full and accurate knowledge of the merits of the controversy. As already observed,...
