In book 1, The Discovery, a rogue forester (Paul) purchases a property in citrus county, Florida after discovering a cave on it. Paul has evil intentions, first evidenced when he was in high school and exhibited psychotic behavior. In North Carolina, a young woman (Mary Ann), is given to Eric Rudolph by her father as a love-slave captive. She escapes to Florida. She then goes to work in a shoe store with a goal of exacting revenge on men for the way she had been treated by men. In her first strike against men, Mary Ann travels to High Springs, Georgia; there, she selects a random victim, whom she seduces and then murders as he poses for her at the head of the falls. Paul has a mean, sadistic and twisted temperament. He befriends a pool-shooting, retired fireman (Tony), who is bored and looking for excitement. He finds the excitement on a stream in north Florida, where he and Paul kidnap a couple and rape the woman....
